today. His Worship remanded the case.

"JEAN" is on the war-path again about gambling, which is spreading and doing an immense amount of evil. We believe the authorities are stirring a little in the matter, and we hope the investigations that are being made will soon lead to action.

A rogue dealer was brought before Mr.
Robinson in the Police Court to-day charged with being in possession of the carcass of a pig unfit for human food.
Mr. Ladds, Colonial Veterinary Surgeon, said the pig was not diseased, but had died from some internal injury. A fine of $20 was imposed.

The Band of the 1st A. & S. Highlanders will play the following Programme on the

The Yaumati police yesterday forenoon stopped half a dozen opium smugglers who were returning from Chinese territory and found four of them armed with revolvers and swords. The men were brought before Mr. Robinson in the Police Court to-day charged with carrying arms without a license, and each was sentenced to pay a fine of $100, with the alternative of six months' hard labour. In the case of one of the men the fine was paid at once.

An exciting chase after a thief took place on the Praya this forenoon. A coolant down on the railing at the cricket ground, depositing his shoes on the ground beside him. Another coolie snatched up the shoes and bolted in the direction of the harbour, followed by the owner of the stolen shoes and a Sikh Police Sergeant whose attention had been attracted by the cry of "thief".
The chase was kept up at a hot pace along the Praya westward until a Sikh Constable coming from the opposite direction caused the fugitive to alter his course, and the rest of the proceedings were carried on in the harbour. The thief having jumped on the seargeant, although unable to swim, promptly followed him. The seargeant was able to get hold of his man somehow and clutched a rope to keep himself afloat. The prisoner's struggles, however, resulted in both of them getting under water, and in the thief ultimately getting clear of his captor. Then the constable jumped in, and while the three men were floundering in the water another policeman got a sambu and picked them all up.

The Sanitary Board are to have a grand field day to-morrow. The following is the programme:—

1. The Colonial Surgeon will move.—
That Mr. Ladds is not appointed Public Vaccinator as recommended by the Board, the Meeting held on the 20th May, 1890.
2. Dr. Cantlie will move.—
That attention be given to the condition of the Tsimshui Water-works services reservoir.
3. Dr. Cantlie will move.—
That a commission be appointed with full power to investigate the question of overcrowding in Hongkong generally.

The establishing of public conveniences throughout Victoria.

5. Regulation of Cemeteries.

THERE will be a game of Polo at Catseyaw Bay at 4.30 p.m. to-morrow, the 27th instant.

The Legislative Council will meet on Monday. The following are the Orders of the Day:—

1. Financial Minutes.

2. Report of the Finance Committee
(No. 13/0.)

3. First reading of a Bill entitled "An Ordinance to amend the Cattle Diseases, Slaughter-Houses, and Markets Ordinance of 1887."

4. Committee on the Bill entitled "An Ordinance to amend and consolidate the law relating to the protection of Women and Girls."

5. Third reading of "The Magistrates'
Bill."

6. Committee on "The Waterworks"
Bill, 189.

The N.-C. Daily News has the highest being hauled about the Settlement the other day.—Sinan Mercury.

Some of the members of the family of the late Marquis Te Lin have arrived, and are putting up at the Canton Guild. The Marchioness is expected down in a day or two and will reside at 33 Kiang-ku Road, till the autumn, when she goes to Hunan.—Shanghai Mercury.

As the Sultan of Turkey, says a Japanese paper, has sent our Emperor a decoration, we must now send him one, and the Yezogami or Maruwa-ku will be sent to Turkey. The latter vessel will probably be selected, as her magnificence will impress the foreigners.

The Straits Times is asked to say that at the last meeting of the Engineers Association during the discussion on "Pipes at Sea," the coal spoken of by Mr. McLaren as being highly inflammable) was intended to be described as Borosil coal and not as Luban coal.

With regard to the telegraphic rates between India and home, the London correspondent of the Advertiser says that Mr.
Pitman, the well-known authority on Indian telegraphs, believes that if he can get a telegraph through Southern Afghanistan the tariff should come down from three rupees to twelve annas a word.

We learn that Admiral Lang and Admial
and proceeded with the Tsingtao and Puyuan Arthur. The Tsingtao went inside Port Arthur, and the Puyuan went outside Port Arthur for the first time and picked up her mooring. Nothing has yet been decided about the Viceroy Li's visit to Port Arthur, and it may be postponed until the autumn or even later. It is reported that there is a serious leak in the pumping tank of the dry dock at Port Arthur.—N.-C. Daily News.

Before I leave this subject permit me, Sir, to correct a mistake which occurs in your editorial note. It runs as follows:—"If a rich merchant in China takes a 3rd or 4th wife and after gratifying his passions abandons her, he, if not punished by the authorities, would be subject to the vengeance of the family of the deserted woman, etc." I don't think you write this

THE CHINA MAIL.

[No. 8568.—JUNE 26, 1890.]

Intimations.

THE CHINA REVIEW.
PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY.

This Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of China caused by the discontinuance of 'Notes and Queries on China and Japan,' has reached its Eighteenth Volume. The Review discusses those topics which are uppermost in the minds of students of the 'Far East' and about which every intelligent person connected with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting Notes and original Papers on the Arts, Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, and Social Manners and Customs, etc., etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new part has been taken, and the Review now gives papers on Trade by well-known writers. It was thought that by extending the scope of the Review in this direction, the Magazine would be more widely used.

The Review department receives special attention, and endeavours are made to present a careful and concise record of literature on China etc., and to give critiques embodying sketches of the most recent works on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward works to 'Editor, China Review, care of China Mail Office.'

The Notes and Queries are still continued and form an important means of obtaining from and diffusing among students knowledge on obscure points.

The Correspondents' column also affords further and greater facilities for the interchange of views and discussion of various topics.

Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, or any of the Modern Languages are received. The papers are contributed by the members of the various Consular, the Imperial Customs, and Hongkong Services, and also by the Missionaries bodies amongst whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is exceptionally activated. Amongst the regular contributors are Drs. Chalmers, Eitel, Breschneider, and Hirth, Professor Ling, and Messrs. Boult, Nutting, Sturt, Phillips, Macleay, Groot, Jamieson, Eakins, Kopsch, Parker, Playfair, Giles, Pitman, and Taylor—all well-known names, indicative of sound scholarship and thorough mastery of their subject.

The Subscription is fixed at $6.00 per annum, postage included—payable in advance.

Orders for binding volumes will be promptly attended to; Address, 'Manager, China Mail Office.'

OPINION OF THE PRESS.

'All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and enterprising Review.'—Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.)

'The China Review' is an excellent table of contents.—Celestial Empire.

'The Publication always contains subjects of interest to sojourners in the Far East and the present issue will hold favourable if not advantageous comparison, with preceding numbers.'—Celestial Empire.

'This number contains several articles of interest and value.'—North-China Herald.

'The China Review' for September—October fully maintains the high standard of excellence which characterizes that publication, and altogether forms a very interesting and readable number. Meteorological will find an interesting and valuable contribution by Dr. Fritzsche on "The Amount of Precipitation (Rain and Snow) of Peking," showing the results of observations made at the Imperial Russian Observatory at Peking, from 1841 to 1880.

"Notes on the Dutch Occupation of Formosa," by Mr. G. Phillips, contains some interesting information, although much of it is second-hand. The Notices of New Books include a most generous and appreciative review of "The Divine Classic of Nan-Hua," and the Notes and Queries are as usual very interesting.—North-China Daily News.

'A substantial and reliable Review which all students of China and the Chinese would do well to patronize.'—Urbanyanum.

'The November—December number of the China Review contains less variety than usual, but the few articles are very interesting. The opening paper by Mr. Herbert A. Giles on "The New Testament in Chinese" treats of a question that must necessarily be of great importance in the eyes of all missionaries.'—Mr. E. H. Parker's "Short Journeys in Szechuan" are continued, and a highly interesting account of the travels of the author of China given. Mr. F. H. Burleigh contributes a paper of some length entitled "The Early Chinese founder of the Chinese Empire," which will be read with genuine interest by students of Chinese history. A few short notices of New Books and a number of Notes and Queries, one of which "On Chinese Oaths in Western Borneo and Java" might appropriately have been placed under a separate heading, complete the number.'—H.K. Daily Press.

'Trübner's Oriental Record' contains the following notice of the China Review:—The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, some what similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable; and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs corps, and the missionary body, among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now considerably cultivated, and may easily be found in the first numbers of the Review by persons highly creditable to their respective authors.'

'Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese post-tatshans of the sixteenth century, Su Tung-po, by Mr. E. G. Bourne, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that "Notes" and "Queries" are destined to find a place in this paper also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary zeal to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its predecessor in the field, and that the China Review may receive the support necessary to insure its continuance.'
